

The Band That Plays Rain Or Shine!

The Story of the Dayton Philharmonic Concert Band:
The First Twenty-five Years

By
Victoria L. Ullery

Foreword by Paul Edmund Bierley
Edited by Clark J. Haines and Francis H. Laws III

The Band That Plays Rain Or Shine! The Story of the Dayton Philharmonic Concert Band: The First Twenty-five Years began as a project to only document the history of how Clark Haines orchestrated the move of the Dayton Concert Band to the Dayton Philharmonic Concert Band. Twenty years of documentation have evolved into a book with over 50 color pictures. The book also includes concert dates, sites, guest soloists, guest conductors, programs, personnel and an extensive bibliography. Clark Haines was an extremely motivating, influential person. His impact on music in the Dayton, Ohio area and beyond was extraordinary. Every time I spoke with him he asked, "How's the book coming?" The book is finally done and is respectfully dedicated to Clark J. Haines. The cost of the book is $30.00. Proceeds will go toward the cost of publishing and the ministry of the New Carlisle Church of the Brethren.
